

LETTER FROM THE MAYOR

34th Annual Conference for the Society of Educators & Scholars
"Ethical Leadership for a Global Prospective"
October 13-15, 2011 - Corpus Christi, Texas

Dear Conference Attendee:

Welcome to Corpus Christi! It is a privilege to have you visit our city. We are honored to have you as our guest and we thank you for this opportunity to serve you! The co-hosts of your conference, the Collaborative Educational Programs for the Americas and Texas A & M University – Corpus Christi, intend that it be meaningful and that you enjoy your stay here.

I know during your stay here in Corpus Christi (Latin for “The Body of Christ”), you’ll experience our warm, South Texas hospitality while enjoying our semi-tropical weather, swaying palm trees, downtown beaches, and sparkling bay front sunrises!

Our evolving Downtown area features one-of-a-kind boutique shops, art exhibits, coffee shops and eateries offering a multitude of eclectic cuisines. Nightlife includes a variety of live entertainment venues, dance clubs and lounges from which to choose.

Unique downtown attractions await you, such as the Texas State Aquarium, the U.S.S. Lexington, the Museum of Science and History, the Asian Cultures Museum & Educational Center and the South Texas Institute for the Arts.

Watch a live hockey game featuring the Ice Rayz or a Hammerheads indoor football game at the ABC Center arena, a concert at Old Concrete Street Amphitheater or Selena Auditorium, or a special event at Whataburger Field, where the Hooks play ball in the spring. Or take a 15-minute drive to see the South Texas Botanical Gardens and Nature Center.

Go online to www.visitcorpuschristitx.org and click “calendar” at the top of the page! If you are not able to enjoy all that Corpus Christi has to offer this trip, we look forward to your return!

Be blessed!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Joe Adame". The script is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
